CUSTOM PAPER BAGS

Real Production Projects

Every paper bag featured on this page represents actual production supplied for foodservice packaging programs. From grocery and bakery bags to café and takeaway applications, each project is custom-developed to meet specific requirements for paper quality, printing, strength, sizing and finishing—ensuring consistent quality from production through export.

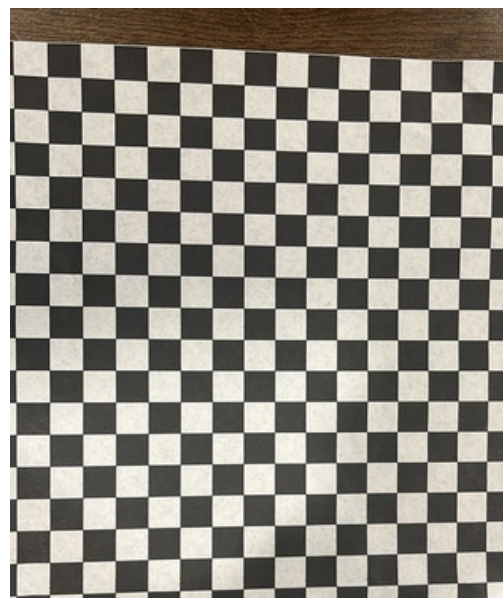

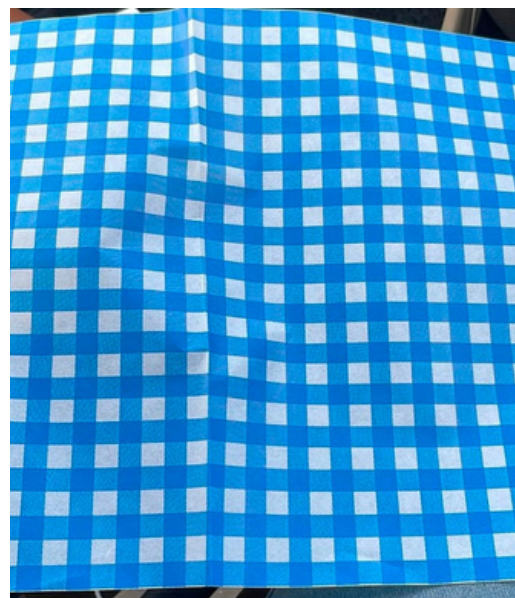

The projects shown represent selected production work supplied through foodservice distribution and private-label programs. To respect customer confidentiality, company names and supply relationships are not disclosed.

CUSTOM PRINTED FOOD PAPERS

Grease-resistant wraps and liners designed for restaurants, QSRs, cafés, bakeries, and foodservice distributors.

Enhance your brand presentation with custom printed food papers available in food-grade materials and high-quality print finishes. Offered in greaseproof paper, deli paper, and sandwich wraps with flexible sizes, print options, and export-ready packaging for diverse foodservice applications.
